A330 CAPTAINS: TR & NTR

Lucky Airlines of Kunming in Western China is looking for A330 Captains for its fleet of A330 aircraft.

Applicants may be current A330 Captains or previous A330 Captains whose rating has expired but have flown the A330 within the past year.

Lucky will also consider current A320/B737NG Captains willing to fly as line A320/B737NG Captains for 1 year before transitioning to the A330.

This is an exceptional opportunity for narrow body Captains to transition to a wide-body aircraft.

Lucky Air offers 4 roster types to suit all lifestyle choices: live locally in Kunming, a renowned tourist destination where the climate is moderate all year round and enjoy the lifestyle in one of China's most liveable cities.

Lucky offers an excellent remuneration package for all roster choices, a loyalty bonus of up $25,000, plus a fast reporting bonus of $15,000 or $20,000 for holders of a CAAC licence.

It will be difficult to find a better package of salary and benefits, especially since all remuneration is net/after taxes in China.
