

SUPARNA AIRLINES

B737NG TR/NTR CAPTAIN

Suparna Airlines is currently offering suitably qualified B737 Captains an outstanding contract opportunity based in the cosmopolitan city of Shanghai, China. Experienced B737 Captains can take advantage of this lucrative package of benefits whilst enjoying the thriving expat friendly lifestyle in one of China's most sophisticated cities.

Suparna will consider B737Classic/EFIS Captains with more than 4000 hours on commercial aircraft for conversion to B737NG with more B737's and B787's arriving over the next few years.

Suparna, formerly known as Yangtze River Express, has rebranded to reflect the new direction for this expanding airline as it looks to increase its passenger and cargo operations across the globe.

Suparna currently operates a fleet of 22 freighter and 11 passenger aircraft across B737NG, B787 and B747-400 types. In January 2019 Suparna started to operate their first B787 pax aircraft, with further deliveries scheduled throughout the year.

Contracts are 3 years in length for type-rated pilots, 5 years for EFIS/Classic rated pilots. There are two roster choices available: 9 days off in a block per month or 15 days off in every 60 days cycle.

Suparna pay your income tax liability in China so all remuneration is 'in the hand', plus Suparna provides free and reduced cost international and domestic tickets each year on the HNA network of airlines.
